Proper grammar regarding "write only" or "only write" ... You can say "write the answer only" or "write only the answer". "only" in the beginning isn't correct and can be replaced with "just", but the meaning is slightly different, ie "do this and nothing else". With "only" you restrict the writing part, not the other actions.

According to this post, we should be flagging link-only answers because an answer should actually contain an answer.. With the above in mind, I have flagged several answers as "link-only" answers and, recently, a lot of my flags have been declined - a few of which were then deleted by a mod afterwards (hence, myself thinking the flag was actually a correct one).
