What is dark energy? More is unknown than is known — we know how much there is, and we know some of its properties; other than that, dark energy is a mystery — but an important one. Roughly 70% of the Universe is made of dark energy. Dark matter makes up about 25%. The rest - everything on Earth, everything ever observed with all of our instruments, all normal matter adds up to less than 5 ...

During my 20-plus years in the surety industry, I have been asked one question more than any other: "What is my bonding capacity and how is it determined?" Unfortunately, this simple question is the most difficult one for a surety agent to answer and merits a clear explanation. Bonding capacity is the maximum amount of surety credit a surety company will provide to a contractor.

FORCES . A force is any push or pull that causes an object to move, stop, or change speed or direction.; The greater the force, the greater the change in motion will be. The more massive an object, the less effect a given force will have on the object.; Unless acted on by a force, objects in motion tend to stay in motion and objects at rest remain at rest.
