A content note generally contains useful information and explanations that do not fit into the primary text itself. Content notes may be given as footnotes or endnotes or even a combination of both footnotes and endnotes. Such content notes may themselves contain a style of parenthetical referencing, just as the main text does.

a sudden change in the environment (e.g. an earthquake, flood, or fire) that drastically reduces the size of a population. The few survivors that pass through the restrictive bottleneck may have a gene pool that no longer reflects that original population's gene pool. E.g. the population of california condors was reduced to 9 individuals.

Fingerprints have been extensively investigated from many points of view. Many detailed studies on their embryogenesis exist, numerous papers have been written on the inheritance of certain fingerprint features and they have been statistically linked to all kinds of common human features (gender) and some more obscure ones (sexual orientation, high blood pressure).

Prior to Junior Skeptic, no English-language source seems to have ever taken a hard critical look at the legendary version of Antoine Bovis's "discovery" of pyramid power.. The best source on this topic was a Danish-language book by skeptic Jens Laigaard. With the help of translation software (and a good dictionary), I was able to hammer out a rough translation of the relevant section of ...
