Dear BDS, walking diwn my park this morning at 6.40am, i came in close to a muntjac female deer. Small deer with little legs. I thought it was a bird walking through the long grass until it came out and it trotted on and looked back, and went into the brambells that are vast at the bottom of Senneleys Park B32 Bartley Green, Birmingham.

A word about heights and safety matters: I think it would be ideal to put up three strands of fishing line as your deer fence: the first one about 10" off the ground, and then the next two spaced fairly evenly on the t-post above it. We only keep two strands, though, omitting the lowest one, because we have a couple of dogs that regularly run under and get tangled in the lowest strand if we ...
